

Announcing the new Xerox DocuMate 3640 Scanner

Updated version of the successful DocuMate 632 Scanner continues the tradition of excellence in DocuMate product line.

Guildford, UK, 1st March 2010 –

Visioneer and Xerox have today announced the Xerox DocuMate™ 3640, a duplex flatbed scanner that can scan up to 80 images per minute (ipm). The scanner features an 80-page capacity automatic document feeder, with an ultrasonic double feed detection system to ensure that stapled or misfed documents are identified and the user is alerted. The DocuMate 3640 is powered by Visioneer OneTouch® to scan documents to a choice of 99 preset user configurable destinations. This enables documents to be scanned with customised settings for resolution, colour, cropping, file format and then delivered to virtually any application, folder or device – all at the touch of a button. Bundled software includes Nuance PaperPort and OmniPage Pro, Kofax VRS, EMC QuickScan Pro Demo and Visioneer OneTouch technology.

“Building on the success of the DocuMate 632 we’ve now included Ultrasonic Double Feed Detection, which makes the Xerox DocuMate 3640 the perfect scanning solution for the whole department or just the person who supports the entire department,” said Peter Trapmore, EMEA Sales Director at Visioneer. “Anyone can scan a stack of documents, convert the images into a searchable PDF file and then email, print or store it with a single touch of a button. Visioneer’s advanced drivers provide compatibility and connectivity to enterprise capture and content management applications such as Xerox DocuShare®. The A4 flatbed makes this scanner particularly attractive for government, insurance and real estate and legal markets.”

The DocuMate 3640 scans at 40 ppm/ 80 ipm and offers an optical resolution of 600 dpi, high speed USB 2.0 interface (USB 1.1 compatible), and a suite of bundled software applications and utilities including TWAIN and certified ISIS® drivers

The Xerox DocuMate 3640 is priced at £1675.00 (ex VAT) RRP and is available immediately across Europe – for a complete list of resellers please visit:
