Xerox® DocuShare® Digital Mailroom Solution

The mailroom is ripe with opportunities to transform manual document processes into efficient, seamless digital workflows. Xerox® DocuShare® Flex Content Management Platform for Mail helps you easily manage high-value incoming correspondence, so your teams can process and distribute information faster than ever before.

THE DOCUSHARE FLEX FOR MAIL SOLUTION

Automate the capture of all incoming mail and correspondence and deliver structured electronic information to your business processes, systems, and end users. DocuShare Flex for Mail allows you to jumpstart downstream information workflows to improve speed, security and accuracy for transactional processes like accounts payable, claims and invoice processing.

Efficient Content Management
Capture, review and act on correspondence from inbound physical mail, including mail directed to individuals or departments.

Digitized Processes
Tie incoming mail and downstream processes together to help streamline how critical business information reaches decision-makers.

Compliance, Simplified
Support industry compliance and corporate policies with full audit traceability and records management.

Secure Access
Benefit from leading-edge cloud hosting security practices along with encrypted user authentication, scheduled backups, off-site storage and site replication.

In today’s fast-paced business landscape, effectively managing incoming correspondence has never been more important. That’s why we developed the Xerox® DocuShare® Flex content management platform for digital mailrooms to provide the ability to process incoming mail, increase collaboration and improve decision-making.
