TOTAL FLEXIBILITY

When you need a flexible scanner configuration, Xerox® delivers. The DocuMate 4700 is an excellent flatbed scanner when directly connected to your PC. It also can become a flatbed option when connected to any DocuMate ADF scanner. By using the built-in USB hub, the scanners configuration is changed to an ADF and flatbed scanner that combine and are shown as a single scanner. So, if your needs suddenly change from the ADF-only scanner you have today, you can add a flatbed scanner and improve the investment you've already made in an ADF scanner. The ability to configure your DocuMate 4700 with an ADF scanner in series brings total flexibility to the entire DocuMate scanner product line.

The DocuMate 4700's powerful software, robust functionality and superior hardware specification delivers quality in every scan. Flatbed scanning offers the option to scan a wide variety of documents, such as books, magazines, plastic cards and fragile paper.

Now there is no need to install multiple flatbed scanners across a network if the majority of users do not require this function on a frequent basis. You now have a new option to simply add flatbed capability to your existing set-up, saving time and money. The generous flatbed size enables you to scan large documents (up to A3) even if the connected ADF scanner is only A4 size.

POWERFUL TECHNOLOGY

The DocuMate 4700 can scan documents to 9 preset, yet completely configurable, destinations using Visioneer® OneTouch® technology. This enables your documents to be scanned with the correct settings for resolution, colour, crop-ping, file format and then delivered to virtually any application, folder or device – all at the touch of a button. OneTouch technology is not only a great productivity gain, but it greatly reduces amount of time it takes to learn how to operate the scanner and increases your return on investment.

Ideal for management of old or delicate documents, the DocuMate 4700 includes software tools to edit, crop and retouch scanned images and organise the files into folders. With the touch of a button, users are able to scan and automatically upload their documents to popular cloud destinations such as Google Docs™, Evernote®, DropBox, Box.net and others.
